FOUNDATIONS OF OUR FAITH

Ask Me WhoOo creator, Diana Beach Batarseh is an accomplished educator, musician, singer, and retreat speaker. She has made a positive contribution in the lives of countless children, parents and families. This project was conceived, birthed, tested, and proven in the context of the Mustard Seed Preschool, a ministry of Christ Community Church in Franklin, Tennessee, for which Diana was the founding director. Over a five year period Diana and her staff of over thirty professionals witnessed the amazing results in the lives of hundreds of kids anchored in the knowledge that they are the beloved of Christ. Songs that teach children (and the grown-ups who are listening) the foundation of our faith as adapted from the Westminster Shorter Catechism. You're sure to be inspired as you witness the power of Truth embraced!

"My family has experienced the fruit of Ask Me WhoOo. Our boys have been exposed to a lot of music. As a parent, it is so meaningful to see them recall God's truths through these songs and ask incredible questions that ignite spiritual conversation."

Dan Haseltine
Artist, Jars of Clay

"Finally, the First Catechism put to music that children love to listen to, love to sing, and love to learn! My grandchildren ask for this music when they get into my car. They have no idea they are being 'catechized.'"

Sue Jakes
Education Specialist, CEP
Presbyterian Church in America

"Diana has resonated with and furthered the Church's current resurgence of catechizing our children. Literally hundreds of children have buried in their hearts these redemptive melodies and eternal truths about our Triune God through this fresh and effective resource."

Scotty Smith, Founding Pastor
Christ Community Church
